

A visualization of the spatial distribution of the variable var_1 across the spatial domain. The domain is represented by a hexagonal grid. All cells in the grid are colored yellow and labeled "100%", indicating that the variable has a constant value of 100% across the entire spatial domain.

